Skidding Car Hurts Couple At Bus Stop

CPYRGHT

A Central Intelligence Agency analyst and his wife were inanalyst and his whe were in-jured early today when struck by skidding car as they waited a bus at Twelfth street and Pennsylvania avenue N.W. The wife, Mrs. Freien Tara-soff, 39, is in critical condition at Casualty - Hospital with severe head inturies internal severe head injuries, internal injuries and cuts. Her husband, George D. Tarasoff, 48, also is at Casualty in fair condition.

Driver of the car, Lloyd J. Welch, 20, of Beachville, Md., an employe of the Indian Head Naval Propellant, Plant, was charged with two counts of colliding with a pedestrian, unreasonable speed and colliding.

Police Pvts. Vincent B. Burton and Lewis E. Peters, said the Welch car was going east on Penpsylvania avenue, struck an icy spot on the paving, skidded into a sign stanchion. struct the couple standing in a safety zone and then hit a traffic light pole.

They said the Tarasoffs were thrown about 10 feet.